Central Virginia Food Bank thanks Hindu Center of Virginia

Thank you for the Hindu Center of Virginia's gift to the Central Virginia Foodbank, received on September 28, 2005. Your generosity will enable us to feed many hungry people in Richmond metro area and beyond. In fact, for every dollar you sent, we were able to gather, handle, sort and distribute twelve dollars worth of food. Your contribution was especially helpful to us because summertime donations of food are always low. Your contribution came at an excellent time.....

.....Please share our gratitude with everyone at the Hindu Center of Virginia. Your support gives us hope that we will one day succeed in reaching our goal, "...that none shall go hungry."

Deepavali Festival

Hindu Center of VA Celebrates
Deepavali, the Festival of Lights

Tuesday, November 01, 2005 7:00 PM - 9:15 PM

Deepavali, also known as the Festival of Lights, is one of the most beautiful festivals widely celebrated by all. The festival is to celebrate the return of Lord Rama to his kingdom Ayodhya after 14-years of exile. Also, this is the day to worship Lakshmi, the Goddess of prosperity and wealth. It is believed that Goddess Lakshmi visits every house on this day and brings wealth and prosperity. The festival is celebrated with great pomp and show. Traditional pujas are offered to Lakshmi, Ganesh and Sarswati.

Walk-A-Thon

The Hindu Center of Virginia organized its first-ever Walk-A-Thon on August 13, 2005 at the Innsbrook Jogging Course, Glen Allen. About 90 enthusiastic community members registered for the event. Many thanks to Ravi Menon and all volunteers who dedicated a significant amount of their time and effort in planning and organizing the event. They were instrumental in making it a successful, first-ever event of the Hindu Center. A special thanks to all sponsors of the event. A part of the proceed was donated to the Central Virginia Food Bank.

Hindu Center of VA
Celebrates
Skandha Shashti

Monday , November 7, 2005 6:00 P.M. – 8:00 P.M

The story of Skanda Shashti is the story of the birth of Skanda or Kumara and the fulfillment of the purpose of His divine incarnation. "Tormented by the asura (demon/anti God) Tarakasura, the devas with Indra at their head went to the world of the self born the creator" (Kumara Sambhava 2.1). The creator said "Only the spark of Shiva can produce the hero who will defeat the powers of the evil". The penance of Parvathi and the sacrifice of Kama aroused Shiva from his Samadhi. However, none could bear the sparks of His fiery seed. It fell into the mouth of Agni, and afterwards received by Ganges, who in turn threw it into Sara Vana (forest of arrow like grass). Thus Saravanabava was born. He was also Skanda - Shiva's power of chastity preserved through penance. Skanda was raised by the six mothers of the divine constellation of Krithikai (pleiades). Karthikeya divided himself into six babies to be nursed by six mothers. When Parvathi came and gathered all the six babies, He became Aarumukha - the one with the six faces and one body. Aarumukha became Kumara - the powerful virile adolescent who was also the beautiful and the handsome (Muruga). He was made the General (Deva Senapathi) of the God's army". Skanda received from his mother Parasakthi an all powerful Vel (lance). He engaged the armies of Simhamukha, Surapadman and Tarakasura on a six-day battle and vanquished all of them. The Asuras were annihilated and the Devas were liberated. The sixth day (Sashti) of the waxing moon (sukhla) in the month of Ashada (Oct/Nov) is celebrated as Skandha Sashti.
